15942	GREAT BRITAIN - BOOKLETS		1988 In the first half of 1988, tests were started with various ways of dispensing booklets - this was both electrical and mechanical. For these experiments new test material in the form of booklets was needed and these were produced with labels either with or without an overprint of a bar. These labels were on unwatermarked paper, and with the exception of the overprint when this was used, have no other printing (stampboards.com 30/10/2009). Here we have an empty booklet with 'Electical Machine Dummy Booklet for test purposes only' on the cover, printed in grey ink, with no printers name (unlike other booklets). There may have been 4 x poached egg stamps, there are 3 stamp width strips with a thick black vertical line on each. Rarely seen.	US3	£28.00

31820	GREAT BRITAIN - QV (CARICATURES)		VALENTINE - PEACE ENVELOPE. A fine example of the Deraedemaeker reprint in pale grey depicting the Angel of Peace receiving two warriors inscribed 'Arbitration for War Universal Brotherhood Freedom of Commerce'. (*) No. 10 has design coverign the address side, as on No.9. In the centre above the two Warriors laying their arms at the feet of the Angel of Peace; to the left of this is a building inscribed 'CONGRESS OF NATIONS,' in front of which is a statue of Justice, on a pedestal surrounded by emblems of Arts and Sciences; on the right is a vignette depicting Agriculture and Commerce. Below this runs a ribbon, lettered 'ARBITRATON FOR WAR - UNIVERSAL BROTHERHOOD - FREEDOM OF COMMERCE.' On the lower left is a picture having further reference to trade, perhaps to Free Trade, which appears here to be added to the list of blessings to be advocated in connection with, and as springing from, 'Ocean Penny Postage.' This has the inscriptions of the engraver, &c., below the design, and I have seen three varieties of them: a. The same as upon Nos. 8a and 9a; I have this both with embossed, gummed flap, and with plain flap. B. With the addresses at left and right in smaller type, and thus, 'Johnston & Hunter, Edin. - Hudson Scott, Carlisle,' on the left, and 'Ackermann & Co. &-R. Theobald, London' on the right; I have seen this with embossed and gummed flap, only. C. With the same inscriptions as upon NO. 9b. I find this on an envelope of azure wove paper (a. and b. are on grey) with gummed flap, embossed with a circular device of no speical significance; all are the same size as the last few numbers. The design upon this envelope was plainly made up of three separate parts, which, in common with the rest of Valentine's designs, were probably engraved upon steel plates, impressions from these being transferred to stone, from which the envelopes themselves were printed; the publishers' inscriptions were added on the stone. In this instance, seven copies that I have before me all show slight differences in the relative positions of the different parts of the design, and these do not, I think, arise from these parts being printed separately on the envelopes, but from distinct arrangements of the transfers on the stone.	PH	£65.00
31821	GREAT BRITAIN - QV (CARICATURES)		VALENTINE - OCEAN POSTAGE ENVELOPE. A good Deraedemaeker reprint with sailing ship inser 'OCEAN PENNY POSTAGE' on sails and at top 'THE WORLD AWAITS GREAT BRITAIN'S GREATEST GIFT/AN/OCEAN PENNY POSTAGE'. Henry Anelay imprint at lower left. The third is of somewhat similar general appearance, and is probably by the same artist. The Sailor and the Pier are replaced by a Ship, on one of the sails of which are the words 'OCEAN PENNY POSTAGE,' while the pennon at the masthead is inscribed '1d.' The othr inscriptions on this envelope read, 'THE WORLD AWAITS GREAT BRITAIN'S GREATEST GIFT -AN-OCEAN PENNY POSTAGE - TO MAKE HOME EVERYWHERE AND ALL NATIONS NEIGHBOURS.' In the left lower corner is the name 'HENRY ASNELAY'; and on the lower flap 'London, Charles Gilpin, 5 Bishopgate Street Without - Price One Shilling and sixpence per 100.' This is also printed in black on greyish wove paper, and I have seen a copy used in November 1850, the earliest date that I have found upon any of the envelopes of this class.	PH	£65.00

31828	GREAT BRITAIN - QV (CARICATURES)		SPOONER CARICATURE NO.10. A very fine unused ORIGINAL envelope depicting various sporting scenes, Britannia hunting with the lion and a shotgun. Nos. 10, 11, and 12 show various Sporting Scenes. There is an illusion to the war with China in the first of the three, where Britannia, with the lion as pointer, and a fowling-piece loaded with 'Gunpowder T. without sugar,' is about to disturb a covey of partridges with Chinamen's heads ; while the gunner behind the tree (John Bull perhaps) remarks, 'Pepper for you young feller.' A foreign sportsman on the upper left, most correctly got up, seems likely to be brought down by the indignant lady behind him with the broom. The two pairs below are of equal merit, the Cockney, who discharges his weapon at close quarters into the back of his companion, and observes, 'Lor Jenkins, I hope I ain't hurt you,' being well balanced by the injured innocent, caught with gun and game bag, who assures the keeper, 'Lor Sir, I never poached anything, not even a Heg.'	PH	£300.00

31836	GREAT BRITAIN - QV (CARICATURES)		SPOONER CARICATURE NO.5. A very fine unused ORIGINAL envelope showing Britannia armed with a spear and shield and the lion reading the new Postal Regulations. On either side are depicted the advantages of cheap postage etc. Britannia on No.5 is armed for offence as well as defence, having both spear and shield; she appears in high good humour, sitting, with arms akimbo, on the back of the lion, who is reading the new Postal Regulations. On each side are depicted the advantages of cheap postage, and the parcel is plainly predicted. On the upper left is a boy saying, 'Oh, please Mr. Smut will you bring mother half a hundred coals?' to which the vendor replies, 'I can't bring them, 'cos I'm engaged, but I'll put'em in the post directly.' Below, these, a lady at the butcher's asks, 'Have you sent my Mutton, Mr. Sticken,' and receives the answer, 'The boy has just put it in the post, Miss.' On the other side are some developments to which we have not yet attained; an old gentleman enquires, 'Waiter, how long will my soup be?' and is told, 'It's just put in the post, sir.' Just beneath, a postman hands back an infant to a buxom female, with the remark, 'It's returned, marm; they won't take it in.' And in the right lower corner a small boy plaintively asks, 'Granny, can't you send belly-aches away by post?'	PH	£300.00

32063	GREAT BRITAIN - COVERS - QV		1847 GREAT BRITAIN, ROYAL MAIL, QUEEN VICTORIA, 4 August 1847, An envelope from Queen Victoria in her own hand dated 4 August 1847 to Queen Adelaide. She was married 10 February 1840 to Prince Albert who died 14 August 1861, so this letter is an early scarcer one that does not have the black mourning edges from after his death. Young Queen Victoria portrait. This envelope written in Queen Victoria's own hand in London is unusual not only because it is not a mourning cover but because it was paid at the London General Post Office receiving the Crown PAID stamp for 4 August 1847. Usually adhesive stamps were applied to all Royal Mail.	PH	£900.00
